Welcome to Twin Harbors

Twin Harbors State Park sits along the shores of the Pacific Ocean. This 172-acre camping park is four miles south of Westhaven. The area allows opportunities for nature study and seaside activity along the ocean shore, and the chance to lie in the sand and soak up the sun in one of the most beautiful places.

Beach activities predominate, including kite flying, surf fishing, clamming and surfing.

Overnight accommodations

The park features 230 standard campsites and 42 hookup campsites. The hookup sites are small and close together, and bigger rigs may have some trouble with site size. Maximum site length is 35 feet (may have limited availability). Standard campsites 192 through 299 are located on the ocean side of Highway 105 to provide easy, pedestrian access to the beach. To reserve a campsite, visit online at www.parks.wa.gov or call (888) CAMPOUT or (888) 226-7688.

The park offers a group camp that accommodates up to 60 guests. Parking is limited to 10 cars. Fees vary with size of the group. To reserve the group camp, please call (888) CAMPOUT or (888) 226-7688.

Park history

The park and area was named after the areas dual harbors, one in Willapa Bay and one in Grays Harbor. During the 1930s, the park area was a U.S. Army training ground. The last remaining barracks were removed from the park in early 1977. The main park was acquired in 15 parcels; the first in March of 1937 and the last in March 1981. South Beach was acquired in 10 parcels with the first in October of 1973 and the last in December of 1974. All but 46 acres were acquired from private ownership.
